Our Year

The doors of education are opened as the North Davidson students enter for the school year, 1960-61.

Entering high school brings much trouble-especially with locker combinations.

Helpful advice comes from Miss Rhyne, typing instructor.

Coach Don Palmer gives pre-game instructions to captains, Kermit Oman and Charles Thomas.

Homecoming Queen, Brenda Gobble, was crowned by captain Kenneth Swicegood at our homecoming game.

Women from Mars? No, just two of the dramatic students participating in an assembly program.

Cheering our boys to victory is our cheerleading squad.

Pop corn, anyone?

Carolyn Arrowood leading our team to victory.

Representing N.D. at the Davidson County Fair is our own queen Miss North Davidson, Donna Wilson.

A year completed, another step up the ladder toward higher education.

Dedication

"The teacher is a believer;
He has abiding faith in the improvability of the race."

...Morgan

Because of your devotion and loyalty to the school
beyond the call of duty;

Because of your efforts to inculcate in your pupils an appreciation of the principles of democracy;

Because of your recognition of individual differences, needs, and interests;

Because your daily conduct inspires those whom you teach;

We, the yearbook staff, dedicate the 1961
NORDAHI to you,

MR. I.R. MICHAEL

Assisting Latin students translate a story is one of his many tasks.

Mr. Michael explains a complicated math problem to a puzzled student.

Being Latin Club sponsor requires time for counseling the officers.

Class poem

Upward and onward with efforts unceasing,
Maintaining high standards, worthy goals we are seeking.
Adopting the slogan "One for all, all for one,"
This symbolizes the class of '61.

No task too great, no chore too small,
With untiring zeal we have given our all Interwoven with sobriety, but through it all a thread of fun,
All work and no play would make a dull class of '61.

Sometimes we did stumble, or maybe did fall,
It's not always easy to answer duty's call.
In spite of our shortcomings, a good race we've run.
Hats off to the class of '61.

Naturally to us, our class seems the best,
However the future will be the real test.
We accept the challenge, the work to be done.
Good luck to you all from the class of '61.
